Meet The Referee James Regan (Hollymount-Carramore)

Standby Referee: Kevin Connelly (Hollymount-Carramore)
Linesman: John Brennan (Claremorris)
Fourth Official: Martin Kennedy (The Neale)

The referee for today's Senior Final replay is James Regan from the Hollymount-Carramore club. James has been refereeing for a number of years, and among his assignments at underage level were the 2016 U14 A Final. Having progressed to adult level, James has been regularly in charge of the whistle at Mayo championship matches in recent years, including this year's Senior quarter-final meeting of Crossmolina Deel Rovers and Belmullet, the Intermediate semi-final meeting of Moy Davitts and Ardnaree Sarsfields, and the South Mayo O' Mara Cup Final between Claremorris and Mayo Gaels.

James took charge of last year's Mayo Junior B Final between Acla CLG and Kilmovee Shamrocks, and today he referees his first Mayo Senior Final.

REPLAY If today's replay is level at the end of normal time, two 10 minute periods of extra time will be played to decide a winner. If the game is still level at the end of this, a penalty competition will take place to determine a winner.

A Chairde, On behalf of Mayo GAA, it is my great pleasure to welcome you all to Hastings Insurance MacHale Park for this afternoon's 2025 Connacht Gold Mayo Senior Football Final Replay.

What a thrilling game both teams gave us last weekend! Ballina Stephenites, the defending champions, needed a two-point free deep in injury time to snatch a 1-15 to 0-18 draw from the jaws of defeat against Westport St Patrick's — in a final that had everything. It was truly a memorable encounter. Congratulations to both teams on an outstanding display of football. We now look forward with excitement to another excellent game here today in Hastings Insurance MacHale Park.

I want to sincerely thank all those who have worked tirelessly behind the scenes to prepare for today's replay. In particular, I acknowledge the work of our Competitions Control Committee (CCC) under the chairpersonship of Michael Diskin, and our County Secretary, Ronan Kirrane. Thanks also to my colleagues on Coiste Bainistíochta, James Rocke, our Event Controller, and Frank Flynn, our Safety Officer.

To the MacHale Park Grounds Committee, led by Gerry Bourke, Grounds Manager Phil Heneghan, and Administrator Michael Cummins — thank you for your ongoing hard work. Sincere thanks also to our voluntary stewards — again under Gerry Bourke's leadership — and to Sinéad McLoughlin and all our gate stewards. To every volunteer who contributes in any way: your commitment is deeply appreciated. You are the foundation of our organisation.

To our match officials — thank you. I would like to acknowledge Referee Administrator Seán MacÉil and his committee, along with all referees, linesmen, umpires, and officials who have served throughout the 2025 season. Today, we congratulate James Regan of the Hollymount-Carramore club on his appointment as referee for today's replay.

I would also like to thank the local press and radio for their excellent and consistent coverage of our club fixtures. Thanks to John Walker, our Communications Officer, and all involved with Mayo GAA TV, who bring live coverage of our games to a wider audience. We are also extremely grateful for the continued support of our Senior Championship sponsors, Connacht Gold. Your long-standing commitment to Mayo GAA is deeply appreciated by everyone involved.

Go n-éirí an t-ádh libh go léir inniu.

Enjoy the game, and thank you for your continued support of Mayo GAA

Connacht Club Championship

The winners of this afternoon's Senior Final replay will represent Mayo in the upcoming AIB Connacht Club Championship. They will take on North London Shamrocks, back-to-back London champions, in the quarter-final of the competition at a Mayo venue on the weekend of 8th/9th November.

Second Time Around

It doesn't happen too often in Mayo football — a senior championship final replay. It hadn't happened since 2006 before Frank Irwin seized his moment last Sunday.

But such have been the fine margins in this year's competition, few were surprised when Ballina Stephenites and Westport couldn't be separated after seventy minutes of gripping intensity last weekend. Now, the county's two senior titans go again, and you get the feeling this one could be something special.

The drawn game had it all. Moments of brilliance, spells of dominance for both sides, and more than enough drama to whet the appetite for the sequel. Westport looked to have one hand on the Moclair Cup when Brian McDermott hit a score for the ages and Killian Kilkelly nudged them ahead in injury-time. But the Stephenites, showing all the qualities we associate with champions, refused to wilt. Sam Callinan's composure and a fine equaliser from Frank Irwin deep into stoppage time ensured there'd be another chapter in this gripping story.

For manager Niall Heffernan and his seasoned Stephenites panel, the replay offers both an opportunity and a warning. Pat Holmes, meanwhile, will be quietly pleased with how his side rallied when they were eight points down after the first quarter and watched their spiritual leader, Lee Keegan, limp out of the action. That was when the likes of Ben Doyle and Eoghan McLaughlin, still as influential as ever, led by deed rather than word, throwing themselves into tackles and driving their team forward. And when they needed inspiration last weekend, they found enough of it to fight another day.

Replays bring a special kind of tension — one built on familiarity and a touch of unfinished business. In front of what's expected to be a captivated crowd, the stakes couldn't be higher. One team will write their name in the history books. The other will wonder what might have been.

Either way, those of us watching from the wings are the real winners — because matches like this remind us why the championship still stirs the soul.

Senior Championship Top Scorer

Following last weekend's Senior Final draw, Ballaghaderreen's Kuba Callaghan still leads the way in this year's scoring chart with a very impressive return of 6-35 from his four outings. However Evan Regan, Ballina Stephenites captain, with a return of 1-6 last Sunday, has closed the gap and now sits in second place with 3-34 from six games, 10 points behind the Ballaghaderreen sharpshooter. With the possibility of extra time in today's game, it is still possible for Evan to claim top spot in the rankings.

Killian Kilkelly's return of 0-4 moves into joint fourth place with Kobe McDonald, both with 2-30, and he too could move up a place after today's game, as he is 5 points behind Paul Towey, who sits in third place.

- 1 Kuba Callaghan Ballaghaderreen 6-35 (53)
 - 2 Evan Regan Ballina Stephenites 3-34 (43)
 - 3 Paul Towey Charlestown Sarsfields 1-38 (41)
 - 4 Killian Kilkelly Westport St Patricks 2-30 (36)
- Kobe McDonald Crossmolina Deel Rovers 2-30 (36)

Moclair Cup Wins

The traditional powers in the county, Ballina Stephenites and Castlebar Mitchels have dominated the Mayo Senior Championship, winning 70 of the 123 championships, since Mitchels won the inaugural championship in 1888. Most of these wins were in the early years of the competition, and if we look at the roll of honour for the Moclair Cup, a very different picture emerges.

The Moclair Cup was first played for in 1971, with Claremorris being the inaugural winners. In all there have been 53 winners of the trophy, and it is Knockmore that head this particular roll of honour with 10 wins. Ballina Stephenites and Castlebar Mitchels are still prominent with 8 and 7 wins respectively. Garrymore and Crossmolina Deel Rovers on 6, Ballintubber on 5, Ballagherreen and Hollymount on 3, Charlestown Sarsfields on 2, and Claremorris, Shamrocks (Aghamore/Kilmovee) and Westport St Patricks on 1 win each complete the list.

In total 12 clubs have won the Moclair Cup, with Ballagherreen, Knockmore, Garrymore, Shamrocks, Hollymount, Ballintubber and Westport St Patricks winning their first Mayo Senior championships since 1971. In contrast, just 9 clubs won Mayo Senior championships in the years between 1888 and 1970, although 3 divisional teams, East Mayo, West Mayo and North Mayo were also successful.

Mayo Senior Championship Winning Captains

Josie Munnelly

In last Sunday's programme, the roll of honour for clubs, and the list of winning captains from 1888 to 2024 was given. Westport St Patricks, under the joint captaincy of Niall McManamon & Oisín McLaughlin, Mayo Senior champions in 2022, were inadvertently omitted from the roll of honour. These details together with referees and final venues where known can be found on the Mayo GAA website, www.mayogaa.com, under the Club Hub tab.

Willie Boshell (Ballina Stephenites), captain in 1910-1914 and 1924, and Josie Munnelly (Castlebar Mitchels), captain in 1946, 1948, 1951, 1952, 1954 and 1956, head this particular list, captaining their clubs to what was then Ward Cup success on 6 occasions each. Jack Bourke (Ballina Stephenites) was a five time winning captain between 1925 and 1929. Others to captain three or more championship winning teams were Andy Corcoran (Ballina Stephenites) with 4 between 1906 and 1909, John Egan (Castlebar Mitchels) also with 4 1930 – 1932 and 1934, and 3 time winning captains DF (Frank Courell (Ballina Stephenites) in 1916, 1918 and 1920, Gerald Courell (Ballina Stephenites) in 1933, 1935 and 1940, Tommy Grier (Ballycastle) in 1936, 1938 and 1939, Seamie Daly (Castlebar Mitchels) in 1942, 1944 and 1945, and Rory Byrne 2015 – 2017. A number of men also captained two championship winning teams.

One father and son have captained winning teams, DF (Frank) & Gerald Courell, while Tom Byrne, Castlebar Mitchels captain in 1950, was the grandfather of Rory Byrne, both goalkeepers for their club and county. Brothers to have captained winning teams include Murt and Ray Prendergast (West Mayo 1960 & Castlebar Mitchels 1969 & 1970 respectively), Tom (1989) and Noel (1994) Connelly (Hollymount) and Tom (1999 & 2000) and James (2002) Nallen (Crossmolina Deel Rovers).

Rory Byrne heads the list of Moclair Cup winning captains on 3, while Danny Dolan (Garrymore), Tom Nallen (Crossmolina Deel Rovers), Brian Ruane (Ballina Stephenites), Peadar Gardiner (Crossmolina Deel Rovers), Damian Coleman (Ballintubber) and David McHale (Knockmore) have all received the Moclair Cup on two occasions.

Ballina Stephenites – A Brief History

The Ballina Stephenites Club was founded on the last Saturday of August 1886 by James Wallace Melvin. (Pen-name Larry Doolan) who also penned the Club's rallying song-"Forward to the goal of victory" The first meeting was held in "Barney's Boreen" at the top of Convent Hill. The first President of the Club was Tom Courell with "Cappy" Fitzgerald as Secretary and Michael Connolly as Treasurer. The club is named in honour of James Stephens (1825-1901).

Ballina Stephenites were affiliated to the Mayo County Board a short time later and played their first official fixture in Jones' Field in Ardnaree against Commercials Junior. The Club won 13 consecutive Senior Football Championships from 1904 - 1916 and 2 Archbishop Croke Cups in 1908 and 1909 and are the most successful club in Mayo with 38 county senior titles.

In 1933 James Stephens Park was opened by P. J. Rutledge, Minister for Justice - (A Ballina man). Bord Na N'óg was founded in 1972 resulting in many juvenile successes since.

The Club hosted 2 G.A.A. Congress weeks in 1984 and 1985 and "Welcome Home Week" in 1984 - the Centenary year of the G.A.A. The Club has produced 5 G.A.A. Football All-Stars in Kevin McStay, Jimmy Browne, Liam McHale, Ger Cafferkey and David Clarke.

In 2005 a team captained by Brian Ruane defeated Portlaoise to win the Andy Merrigan cup as All-Ireland Senior Club Football Championship winners.

Rev. Fr. Gerry Courell, grandson of Tom Courell and son of Gerald, was the club patron until his passing in May 2012, maintaining a proud family association with the club.

Last year Ballina Stephenites retained their senior title, and this afternoon they will be looking to win three titles in succession at the second time of asking, something they haven't succeeded in doing since winning six-in-a-row between 1924 and 1929.

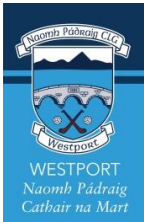

Frank Irwin kicks the equalising score last Sunday

Westport St Patricks A Brief History

The first recorded account of a match involving Westport appeared in the Tuam News on 29th March 1889, when details were given of a match involving Westport McHales and Kilmeena, which the Westport men won by 1-6 to 0-0. In the early years of the GAA, a number of different combinations represented the parish, among them Derry Croaghpatricks, Aughagower, Attyreech, Murrisk Sunbursts and Westport Quay.

In the early years of the 20th century some success came to the parish. In 1907 final Derry Croaghpatricks lost to the mighty Ballina Stephenites of that period by the narrowest of margins 0-5 to 1-1. On their way to the final Derrycroaghpatricks had overcome Castlebar, Cong, Ardagh, and Ballinrobe. Aughagower won a junior championship in 1917, and Attyreech did the same in 1924. Westport contested the 1927 and 1929 senior finals unsuccessfully against Ballina.

The 1930s was a relatively successful decade, with county junior titles won in 1937 and 1940, when Belmullet and Balla were overcome respectively in finals. They also reached an Intermediate final in 1936 where they lost out to Ballycastle by 0-12 to 0-6. During this era also two of the clubs finest ever players Purty Kelly and Tommy Hoban represented Mayo and Connacht with distinction. Indeed Tommy had the honour of representing Connacht in the Railway Cup in both hurling and football, while Purty was a member of Mayo's first All Ireland senior winning team of 1936.

The 1940s heralded a lean period for the club, as many of the stalwarts of the 1930s retired from the scene. Murrisk did reach a junior final in 1944, where they lost out to Belmullet. The lean spell continued throughout the 1950s, and the highlight of this period was the official opening of St Patricks GAA Park on 18th May, 1958, when Mayo played Galway in a challenge game to mark the occasion. This pitch was of great benefit to Mayo GAA, and was the traditional venue for the West Mayo Junior finals for many years.

The 1960s saw a concentration on underage affairs, and a number of titles were won. The West Mayo and County junior titles were won in 1970, and in 1971 the club reached its second Intermediate final, losing out to Ballaghaderreen. Continued progress saw Westport win the County Senior league in 1975. Since then the club have continued to be competitive in the senior and intermediate grades. They reached the county senior final in 1991, when they went down to Hollymount by 1-6 to 1-2, and in 2006 they took Crossmolina to a replay before going down in the semi-final. At underage level too, Westport have remained to the fore, winning many West Mayo titles and county titles.

Westport won the 2009 and 2016 Intermediate championships, when they overcame Tuar Mhic Eadaigh and Kiltimagh respectively in the finals. They followed on their 2016 win, by winning the Connacht and All-Ireland titles at Intermediate level, and since they have operated at Senior level, with their 2022 victory over Ballina Stephenites seeing them win the Moclair Cup for the first time. Today they will attempt to win their second Moclair Cup, following last weekend's drawn final.

Down memory lane with Mick Byrne...

A great weekend of football showcasing the good quality of Mayo football. Two marvellous finals, great football great scores and a great atmosphere before an attendance more than 8,000 spectators.

Congratulations to Kilmeena on winning an outstanding intermediate final, either side could have taken the honours and the scoreline of 0.23 to 1.19, it tells the story this was football at its best. Westport and Ballina live to fight another day but before we get to them, I would like to congratulate and say well done to the two referees John Glavey and Paul Lydon. Their performances were top class and helped in no small way of the top quality of football produced by the four teams on the day, well done men!

The question doing the rounds this week, did Westport let it slip or did Ballina, leading by eight points at one stage do likewise. It was a pulsating final, one thing for sure Ballina would have learned is that any lead against Westport is not safe. This is the second time

Westport lads have fought back after been eight points behind against Breaffy. Their six forwards attack with pace and were a joy to watch in the second half. Add in the McLoughlin's in defence along with McDermott & Dawson and the ever reliable Kevin Kane in the subs bench, they certainly are a formidable side.

Ballina too have many fine players in their side. The very experienced David Clarke in goal, Golden and Callinan in defence, the fine midfield pairing of Murray & Irwin, Conor McStay up front along with my man of the match from last Sunday Evan Regan, playing some of the football of his life at present, I think again its going to go down to the wire with the lads from Westport shading it by two points.

There was a minor discussion after the match whether extra time should have been played. I think the county board were correct in calling a replay. The players and supporters deserve another day out and if the match today is as good as last Sundays, then we will all be happy.

Wish you all the best lads,
Mick
